

From the Principal's Desk.....

Dear parents and students

“Knowledge will forever govern ignorance. And people who mean to be their own Governors, must arm themselves with the power which knowledge gives.” James Madison

It is rightly said that “The whole purpose of education is to teach the child to think and not what to think”. We at Army Public School, Sagar believe that this is the fundamental truth and it has always been the endeavour of the school to instil right values in its students so that they develop a holistic personality and are ready to take on the challenges head on once they step out of the gates of the school.

The unmatched and impressive heights of glory at which our school stands today bears testimony to the fact the school is fiercely committed to pursue excellence in all the fields, be it in academia, sports, ethics or aesthetics. In this contemporary world where relentless competition has become a part and parcel of life, it is of supreme importance that we teach our children to be competent enough to stand tall amongst others with their extraordinary skills and come out victorious from the realms of this challenging labyrinth. Endless achievements of our students in the previous years bear the testimony for our endeavours which will remain incessant in coming years too.

This academic session is coming to its conclusion with beautiful memories of past and dreams for future. My best wishes to all the students for striding on to the next level of their journey.

In the end, I hope these words of Swami Vivekananda “Arise! Awake! And stop not till the road is reached“will act as a motto and watchword that will always inspire our children throughout their lives.

FROM THE EDITORIAL BOARD.....

STRONG OR WEAK

There was a proud teak tree in the forest. He was tall and strong. There was a small herb next to the tree.

The teak tree said, "I am very handsome and strong. No one can defeat me." Hearing this, the herb replied, "Dear friend, too much pride is harmful. Even the strong will fall one day."

The teak ignored the herb's words. He continued to praise himself.

A strong wind blew. The teak stood firmly. Even when it rained, the teak stood strong by spreading its leaves.

During these times, the herb bowed low. The teak made fun of the herb.

One day, there was a storm in the forest. The herb bowed low. As usual, the teak did not want to bow.

The storm kept growing stronger. The teak could no longer bear it. He felt his strength giving way.

He tried his best to stand upright, but in the end, he fell down. That was the end of the proud tree.

When everything was calm again, the herb stood straight. He looked around. He saw that the proud teak had fallen.

MORAL : Pride goes before a fall.
